

Facilities Planning, Design & Construction at Montana State University - Bozeman has the following career opportunities available:

Project Architect: Reporting to the University Architect, the individual in this position is responsible for programming, budgeting, designing, documenting, bidding, and administering construction, maintenance and capital improvement projects.

University Architect: Reporting to the Director, the individual in this position is responsible for planning, coordinating and monitoring the design and construction of all capital, repair and remodeling projects for the University, and administering the activities of the Architectural Services group within Facilities.

Comprehensive benefits package, including tuition waiver of 6 credits, health insurance, retirement, paid holidays, and generous annual and sick leave.

The complete Vacancy Announcement and Application Materials are available at <http://www.montana.edu/cgi-bin/msuinfo/cview/c/08-179>.

